

JUSTICE NOW ON CHERRY HILL

Capt. O'Brien Sends Men After the Loafers Who Infest the Locality and Six of Them Go to Jail.

FOUGHT AGAINST CAPTURE.

Streets in the Vicinity Will Probably Be Safer Now for Respectable Residents and Pedestrians Who Use Them.

Six members of the notorious Cherry Hill gang came to grief today in the Central Street Court. They were sent to the workhouse for six months each in default of $1,000 bail for their good behavior.

The Evening World told the story yesterday of the riot and disorder caused by a lot of the young ruffians who infest Cherry Hill. They have been having things their own way for months, assaulting citizens and policemen, committing thefts and making the streets unsafe for pedestrians after dark.

Capt. O'Brien, who was promoted to his new rank yesterday and assigned to the command of the Oak street station, took charge last night and told his men that he intended to break up the gang. The men got orders to keep after them until they were whipped into shape, if they all had to go to the workhouse.

With these instructions, Roundsman Mulhall went out on a tour. A little before midnight he found a crowd of the young men, ranging from eighteen to twenty-four years of age, standing on Cherry and Roosevelt streets. They were making a lot of noise and blocking the sidewalk. Mulhall told them to move on and not to congregate there any more. They did so with fines, but as soon as the officers had passed they returned and again began their disorderly conduct.

When Mulhall returned he made up his mind to arrest them. He rapped for help, and two patrolmen came to his assistance. The officers then pitched into the gang and after a fight, in which some hard blows were passed, six of them were taken to the station-house.

The prisoners said they were John McNamara, Jeremiah Sheehan, Timothy Foley, John McKern, John W. Kelley and Thomas Burns. They were arraigned in the Central Street Court today before Magistrate Barlow, who gave them six months apiece in jail in default of bail.

RAID ON STREET-SPITTERS.

Spotters Gather in Squads of People Who Violate Sanitary Code.

The spotters are again after the spitters. Fifty of them from the Sanitary Police Squad invaded Brooklyn today and scattered all through the borough looking for violators of the law which forbids spitting in street-cars and public places.

The violators were not hard to find. The courts were kept busy. Fourteen spitters were arraigned in the Adams Street Court today before Magistrate Barlow, who gave them six months apiece in jail in default of bail.

Fines were imposed in some of the cases, but at Adams street the cases were all put over for hearing on April 12, the spitters being released on their own recognizances.

THEY DANCED RIGHT INTO RIOT

Women and All Joined in Ball-room Mix-Up, Out of Which 3 Badly Injured Men Emerged, 2 with Stab Wounds.

ONE TAKEN TO HOSPITAL.

Gorgeous Ball Gowns and Battered Faces Presented a Sorry Spectacle After the Melee Had Been Stopped by the Police Reserves.

Up to the time the row began the ball was voted to be the very swiftest Prof. Zahn's dancing class had ever given. It was held in New Liberty Hall, Williamsburg, and the young people were hard at it when two sturdy young men appeared, Harrison, of No. 62 Moore street, was tapping tickets.

Harrison has since said that the strangers had no tickets and just pushed their way in. He resisted and in three minutes the ball was a riot. There was a general mix-up, in which the young men beat their heads, the young women screamed and tore their ball gowns and blood flowed in the thick of the fight by the door.

Word reached the Stagg street station that a riot was on in the hall and the reserves went around. They had to fight their way into the press. On the floor they found Harrison and the two strangers. One of the latter, Oscar Holake, of No. 125 Manhattan avenue, had five stab wounds in his face and body. The other, Louis Feinberg, of No. 62 Willoughby street, was a mass of bruises. Harrison had two cuts and more bruises than the policeman took time to count.

An ambulance took the two to St. Catherine's Hospital. The condition is said to be serious. The other two principals were locked up charged with riotous assault after a fight. In the Los Avenue Court today Harrison and Feinberg were held pending the result of Holake's injuries. Harrison denied using a knife.

PELL IN STRIPES AGAIN.

Convict Financier Wants Old Job, but Can't Sing in Prison Choir.

George H. Pell, the ex-financier of Wall street, began his second term in Sing Sing Prison today. In 1892, after serving about seven years of a ten-year sentence, Pell was released. He did faithful work as a bookkeeper in the prison and sang in the convict choir, and was allowed the full commutation from his sentence.

When Pell arrived at the prison late yesterday afternoon to begin his second term for larceny, he pleasantly greeted Prisoner Keeper Connaughton and the attendants in the Warden's office. Pell said he hoped he would have his old job in the prison but he did not know whether he could resume his place in the convict choir as his voice was now cracked.

At present Pell is in the tier occupied by the convicts. He will be put to work at some light job, probably in the bookkeeping department.
